UM STUDENT INTERNS AT COUNTY COURT*MISSOULA —

Jeanette Schrock of Superior, a sophomore in social work at The University of Montana—Missoula, is interning as assistant clerk of the Mineral County Justice of the Peace Court this semester.

Schrock's duties include docketing and filing tickets issued by the game warden and Montana Highway Patrol and Mineral County law officers. Her father is Walter C. Schrock Sr.

The Cooperative Education Department at UM's Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs is administering Schrock's internship. The department, on campus since 1981, serves to bridge the gap between education and employment. It places 400-500 interns a year throughout Montana and the nation in more than 35 fields of employment.

Information about the internship program is available at (406) 243-4614.
